Thank you very much for attending my webinar. I hope you enjoyed it. As promised, here is the handout. Don't forget – we used seven videos and only watched one! That is

2. Angry Facebook father

To my parents

I am not your damn slave. It is not my responsibility to clean up your shit. We have a cleaning lady for a reason. Her name is Linda, not Hannah. If you want coffee, get off your ass and make it yourself. If you want a garden, shovel the fertilizer yourself. Don't sit back on your ass and watch me do it. If you walk in the house and get mud all over the floor that I just cleaned, be my guest. But clean it up after you're done getting shit everywhere.

I'm tired of picking up after you. You tell me at least once a day that I have to get a job. You could just pay me for all the shit I do around the house.

Every day when I get home from school, I have to do dishes, clean the countertops, all the floors, make all the beds, do the laundry and get the trash. I'm not even going to mention all the work I do around your clinic. And if I don't do that every day, I get grounded.

Do you know how hard it is to keep up with chores and school work? It's freakin' crazy. I go to bed at 10pm every night because I'm too tired to stay up any longer and do anything else. I have to get up at 5am in the morning to get ready for school. At the weekend, I have to sleep with the door locked so my little brother won't come and get me up at 6am.

This is all true. And I'm tired of this bullshit. Next time I have to pour a cup of coffee, I'm going to flip shit. I have no idea how I have a life. I'm going to hate to see the day when you get too old to wipe your ass and you call me asking for help. I won't be there.

Signed, your pissed kid,

Hannah

5. My new book!

IMPORTANT!!! PLEASE READ ...

The ideas in this talk come from my new book 'Videotelling' which is coming in Spring 2016.

This will be my third book but my first time at self-publishing. It is an innovative classroom resource which combines traditional oral storytelling with narratives from online videos.

The book is the result of years of development and I am currently working with a team of editors and designers to develop it.

However, without your help, it may never exist!

I have launched a crowdfunding campaign to finance the book. Please get involved. Please contribute. Please share.

Thank you very much
Jamie :)
